9. QUIT WISHIN' GO FISHIN'

A fisherman's dream come true. Decorated and stocked from top to bottom this tree holds what is needed to catch "the big one," and that no lie! A lucky fishing hat with polarized sun glasses and selection of tackle acts as the topper. Lighted with fish and dangling with loads of lures, bobbers and other goodies all combine to make this tree as tempting as a night crawler is to a big mouth bass.

What is the secret to a successful fishing trip? The answer is simple, good food, good drink, good friends, and of course good fishing. Under the tree lurks a basket full of Hickory Farms goodies, a cooler stocked with authentic home brew, a basket filled with rich coffee and treats, and a creel with Goldfish and other human fish food. You also have a BBQ to cook up the catch, some Schmiggitty sauce to add sumptuous flavor, and camp style dinner ware when its time to serve your catch. A game for the family, more goodies to eat, antique reels, a fishing pole, and oars also await. We have secured the services of this year's 1st Place Washington State's walleye fisherman, Dave Harrell. He will take you and a friend on a full day of walleye fishing that includes lunch and drink and gear if needed.

30. IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE IN "BLACK AND WHITE" TREE

Just as George Bailey in "A Wonderful Life" found, he had the power to make a difference. That the measure of our humanity has nothing to do with fame or fortune, but with how we live our life. That's Black and White.

Throughout his life George Bailey lived by a creed that placed human need above riches, and as a result, his only wealth was in his family and friends, that is truly enough for anyone.

This is the simple message of the "Black and White" Christmas Tree. Christmas is truly about giving, the love of family and friends and remembering what we are thankful for.

So celebrate the holiday and enjoy your family and friends. The gifts under this tree will provide you with hours of fun. Play Yahtzee, Monopoly and Uno and when you are done, snuggle up with the soft blanket, pop some popcorn get your candy and settle in for the DVD movie "It's A Wonderful Life" played on your new DVD player.

Our hope is that you will enjoy this Tree for its simple yet compelling message. We are here for a reason. We all have the power to make a difference.

33. THE GREATEST GIFT OF ALL TREE

'Tis the season of giving! Christmas seems to bring out the sweet tooth in all of us so we'll make sure you have plenty of chocolate to go around for family and friends. Unfortunately along with the planning, cooking, and shopping, sometimes busyness and stress can get the better of us. So be sure to take time out to treat yourself or a loved one to a bit of relaxation and pampering. And in the midst of the holiday treats and festivities, don't forget the reason for the season. The greatest gift to all mankind, foretold by prophets, worshipped by shepherds and kings, and adored by people from all walks of life throughout the ages: Jesus Christ. Along with 3 chocolate kisses, each small gift box contains a Scripture verse that speaks of Him, the only gift that endures. So enjoy the goodies, the relaxation, the time with loved ones, but hold on to the one gift that will last you your whole life through. Jesus...the greatest gift of all!

37. GLITZ AND BLING TO MAKE YOUR HEART SING TREE

Pink and silver and shining bright, this tree, dressed in glitz and bling, brings images of pageantry, the promenade, and of course the glamour of royalty. Every girl wants to be a princess regardless of her age and this is the perfect tree. Adorned in pink and white lights, beautiful hand made jewelry, sparkling ornaments, crystal swags, and of course a tiara topper all combine to make this a majestic pine.

But wait, this is not all. What would a princess be if she did not have a treasure chest of riches. Under the tree you will find more hand crafted jewelry. Dazzling earrings, stately bracelets, and a beautiful hand crafted necklace are but a few of the royal treasures. For the young ladies in waiting we find a soft crushed ottoman and chair (for waiting) and of course the royal clothing line of "pretty in pink" featuring the latest in imperial outer ware and grooming necessities. For the more mature of the palace there awaits a beautiful vase, a stunning bowl, candle holders, pillows, a parlor lamp, and wine fit for a queen complete with stem ware. But alas, we must not forget that to be a true princess one must practice so we included a training text, "P is for Princess." Enjoy!
